

Monday, September 5

	8:30	09:00	registration
	9:00	09:30	Welcome
	09:30	10:30	Invited Talk: Igor Mel'čuk (University of Montreal)	Dependency in Language
	10:30	11:00	coffee break
Theoretical Foundations	11:00	11:30	Kim Gerdes (LPP, Sorbonne Nouvelle) and Sylvain Kahane (Modyco, Université Paris Ouest)	Defining dependencies (and constituents)
	11:30	12:00	Nicolas Mazziotta (Universität Stuttgart, Institut für Linguistik/Romanistik)	Coordination of verbal dependents in Old French: coordination as a specified juxtaposition or apposition
	12:00	12:30	Timothy Osborne	Type 2 Rising: A Contribution to a DG Account of Discontinuities
	12:30	13:00	Thomas Groß (Aichi University, Nagoya)	Catena in Morphology
	13:00	14:30	lunch
Semantics	14:30	15:00	Ke Wang and Rongpei Wang (Dalian University of Technology)	Implementing Categorical Grammar in Semantic Analysis: from Frame Semantics' View
	15:00	15:30	Orsolya Vincze and Margarita Alonso Ramos (Universidade da Coruña)	A proposal for the multilevel linguistic representation of Spanish person names
	15:30	16:00	Michael Hahn and Detmar Meurers (Seminar für Sprachwissenschaft Universität Tübingen)	On deriving semantic representations from dependencies: A practical approach for evaluating meaning in learner corpora
	16:00	16:30	coffee break
Treebanks	16:30	17:00	Alicia Burga (Universitat Pompeu Fabra), Simon Mille (Universitat Pompeu Fabra) and Leo Wanner (Universitat Pompeu Fabra and ICREA)	Looking Behind the Scenes of Syntactic Dependency Corpus Annotation: Towards a Motivated Annotation Schema of Surface-Syntax in Spanish
	17:00	17:30	Katri Haverinen, Filip Ginter, Veronika Laippala, Samuel Kohonen, Timo Viljanen, Jenna Nyblom, and Tapio Salakoski (University of Turku)	A Dependency-based Analysis of Treebank Annotation Errors
	17:30	18:00	Henrik Høeg Müller (Copenhagen Business School)	The Copenhagen Dependency Treebank (CDT). Extending syntactic annotation to morphology and semantics
	18:00	19:00	welcome reception

Tuesday, September 6

Treebanks	09:00	09:30	Markus Dickinson and Marwa Ragheb (Indiana University)	Dependency Annotation of Coordination for Learner Language
	09:30	10:00	Kristiina Muhonen and Tanja Purtonen (University of Helsinki)	Creating a Dependency Syntactic Treebank: Towards Intuitive Language Modeling
	10:00	10:30	Pavčina Jinová, Lucie Mladová, and Jiří Mirovský (Charles University)	Sentence Structure and Discourse Structure: Possible Parallels
	10:30	11:00	coffee break
Linguistic Issues	11:00	11:30	Jarmila Panevová and Magda Ševčíková (Charles University)	Delimitation of information between grammatical rules and lexicon
	11:30	12:00	Katerina Rysová (Charles University)	The Unmarked Word Order of Inner Participants in Czech, With the Focus on the Systemic Ordering of Actor and Patient
	12:00	12:30	Dina El Kassas (Minya University)	Representation of Zero and Dummy Subject Pronouns within multi-strata dependency framework
	10:30	11:00	coffee break
Short Talks and Posters	14:00	14:50	Short talks for the presentations of posters and demonstrations
	14:50	16:30	Poster and demo sessions with coffee and cookies
			Ramadan Alfared, Denis Béchet, and Alexander Dikovsky (LINA, Université de Nantes)	“CDG LAB”: a Toolbox for Dependency Grammars and Dependency Treebanks Development
			Thomas Groß (Aichi University, Nagoya)	Clitics in Dependency Morphology
			Federico Gobbo (“Informatica Interattiva”, University of Insubria) and Marco Benini (DICOM, University of Insubria)	From Structural Syntax to Constructive Adpositional Grammars
Formal Issues			Eva Duran Eppler (Roehampton University)	The Dependency Distance Hypothesis for bilingual code-switching
			Taiki Yoshimura (Research Institute for World Languages, Osaka University)	The 'Errant' Scope of Question in Turkish: A Word Grammar Account
	16:30	17:00	Vered Silber-Varod (The Open University of Israel and Afeka Tel Aviv Academic College of Engineering)	Dependencies over prosodic boundary tones in Spontaneous Spoken Hebrew
	17:00	17:30	Bernd Bohnet (Universität Stuttgart), Leo Wanner (Universitat Pompeu Fabra and ICREA), and Simon Mille (Universitat Pompeu Fabra)	Statistical Language Generation from Semantic Structures
	17:30	18:00	Alexander Dikovsky (LINA, Université de Nantes)	Categorical Dependency Grammars: from Theory to Large Scale Grammars

Wednesday, September 7

	09:00	10:00	Invited Talk: Joakim Nivre (Uppsala University)	Statistical Dependency Parsing – The State of the Art
	10:00	10:30	coffee break
Parsing	10:30	11:00	Bernd Bohnet (Universität Stuttgart)	Comparing Advanced Graph-based and Transition-based Dependency Parsers
	11:00	11:30	Niels Beuck, Arne Köhn and Wolfgang Menzel (Universität Hamburg)	Incremental Parsing and the Evaluation of Partial Dependency Analyses
	11:30	12:00	Ozlem Cetinoglu, Anton Bryl, Jennifer Foster and Josef Van Genabith (Dublin City University, Ireland)	Improving Dependency Label Accuracy using Statistical Post-editing: A Cross- Framework Study
	12:00	13:30	lunch
Parsing	13:30	14:00	Julia Krivanek and Walt Detmar Meurers (Universität Tübingen)	Comparing Rule-Based and Data- Driven Dependency Parsing of Learner Language
	14:00	14:30	Igor Boguslavsky, Leonid Iomdin, Leonid Tsinman, Victor Sizov, and Vadim Pet- rochenkov (Russian Academy of Sciences)	Rule-Based Dependency Parser Refined by Empirical and Corpus Statistics
	14:30	15:00	coffee break
Linguistic Issues	15:00	15:30	Andreas Pankau (Goethe Universität Frankfurt and Universiteit Utrecht)	Wh-Copying in German as Replacement
	15:30	16:00	Kensei Sugayama (Kyoto Prefectural Uni- versity)	Why kono akai hana and akai kono hana Are Both Possible in Japanese: A Word Grammar Account
	16:00	16:15	closing remarks
	17:00	excursion start
	21:00	dinner

It all depends!
